What are some skills and abilities you can bring to b.j. spoke gallery? Member artists are asked to assist on one or more committees. Knowing a little about your skills/interests will help us find the best fit for you.

How to Apply New member voting takes place the second Tuesday of the month. The work of an artist is voted on by the board of directors and current gallery members. Call Katherine Criss, gallery president (631) 549-5106 to arrange a date to drop off your work. We suggest approximately 8-10 days prior to the meeting.

- ♦ 6-8 pieces of work ready for hanging that best represents you as an artist, currently. Consistency is important.
- ♦ 4-6 jpeg images of additional work or a link to your website - email to bjspokegalleryinfo@gmail.com
- ♦ curricula vitae/artist resume
- ♦ artist statement or a brief description of your current work

Voting

The work, resume, and artists statement is reviewed by gallery member artists, and a vote is taken on the merit of the work. You will be notified of the result within 7 days. A day will be arranged for you to pick up your work. If an artist's work is not accepted it is recommended that they resubmit at a later time.

New Member Orientation

if accepted, the gallery director and new member will schedule a meeting to sign the membership contract, review gallery procedures, and answer any questions. Members sit once a month and will be trained in general gallery management and sales procedures prior to their first sitting day.

Membership Dues & Sitting

membership dues is $200 per month for Full Membership (2 Year Commitment), $100 per month for General Membership (1 year commitment), payable at the start of each month. The first payment is due at orientation. If a member chooses not to sit, the gallery director or the gallery president can sit as a substitute for a fee of $50. If a member is sick or unable to sit on their scheduled day, they must make arrangements to switch days with another member or pay the sitting fee of $50 to their replacement.
